20th Route 66 Shield Monument Unveiled at White Fence Farm in Romeoville

Iconic Photo Op Joins "The First Hundred Miles" of Route 66

ROMEOVILLE, IL - The 20th official Route 66 Shield Monument has been installed at the legendary White Fence Farm in Romeoville, marking a major milestone in the growing network of must-see photo ops along the historic Mother Road.

These vibrant 3D Route 66 shield sculptures have become fan favorites for travelers and road trip enthusiasts, offering picture-perfect moments that celebrate the nostalgia and charm of America's most iconic highway.

The installation is part of an ongoing initiative by Heritage Corridor Destinations, which began in 2022. Working in partnership with communities along Route 66, the organization is creating a trail of these interactive monuments stretching from Berwyn to Pontiac, enhancing the experience for those exploring "The First Hundred Miles."

Visitors can discover the exact locations of all 20 monuments—and plan their ultimate Route 66 photo tour—by downloading the Heritage Corridor Visit Widget app, available in Google Play and the App Store.

Strike a pose, capture a memory, and celebrate the road that built a nation—one shield at a time.

About Heritage Corridor Destinations

Heritage Corridor is a destination of six Illinois counties (Will, Grundy, Livingston, LaSalle, Bureau, and Putnam) southwest of Chicago including the first hundred miles of Route 66, I&M Canal towns and Starved Rock Country. Experience heritage with a modern twist in dining, culture, vintage shopping and outdoor activities for visitors to explore, whether it be a day trip or weekend visit. Cruise through the first hundred miles of Route 66 where a visitor can enjoy more than a taste of the Mother Road and midcentury Americana style. Stroll through the I&M Canal towns and experience the amenities of this cultural, natural, and economic resource with a combination of industrial grit and up-cycled architecture that leaves a visitor inspired about the past and future. Starved Rock Country, one of the Midwest's original vacation destinations, invites visitors to unplug and experience the charm and beauty of the area's waterfalls, canyons, and the Illinois River valley. Visiting the Heritage Corridor is time well spent; the essence of midwestern hospitality, outdoor rejuvenation, and vintage flair with a modern twist.
